

Apothecary Jars & Creepy Books

February 2022 Make & Take

Examples

Examples

Real dried apple cores

Any labels from the internet...aged with coffee or tea

Tools and Supplies

- Tools to bring: Hot Glue Gun
- Supplies to bring:
  - Book(s) to decorate
  - Bottle(s) to decorate
  - Printed label(s) to put on bottle(s) (age by pre-soaking in tea or coffee)
    - Examples: Search for “apothecary labels” or similar
  - Painting clothes
- Provided:
  - Paints & brushes
  - Mod podge (sealer glue and finish)
  - Tissue, paper towels, stick-on letters
  - Some decorations and bottle labels
  - gloves

Steps for Books

- Decorate books using raised letters (with hot glue) & tissue paper
  - can also use hot glue alone, including glow-in-the-dark glue
- Paint book (typically black) and paint page edges sepia
- Let dry
- Dry brush and embellish

Steps for Bottles

- Paint bottle, let dry
- Glue on label(s)
- Add items such as apple cores* with plenty of hot glue
- Dry brush

* Must pre-dry for a week or two

